Subject: Direction under section 147 of the Companies Act 2017 for holding of overdue Annual General Meetings of the Company for the year 2016

Please refer to the application dated March 15, 2019 received from Zeal Pak Cement Factory Limited (the "Company") in terms whereof the Company has sought direction of the Commission under the provisions of section 147 of the Companies Act, 2017 (the "Act") for holding of its overdue Annual General Meeting ("AGM") for the year ended June 30, 2016 latest by April 30, 2019.

2. In connection with this, I am pleased to inform that based on the application, the competent authority has directed you in terms of section 147 of the Act, to convene and hold the overdue AGM of the Company for the year ended June 30, 2016 latest by April 30, 2019 and to lay therein the annual audited financial statements for the respective year then ended for consideration by the shareholders. The Company has been further directed to submit within fifteen days of the date of the meetings so held, a compliance report along with attested copies of the minutes of the said meetings.

3. The above direction may not be construed to be an approval or an endorsement for delay in holding the AGMs and has been given without prejudice to the consequences of the default committed by the Company and its management in complying with the provisions of sections 132 and 223 of the Act. Please note that it is the responsibility of the Company's board to comply with all the legal requirements regarding holding of AGM including but not limited to publishing and circulation of notice and annual audited accounts not later than twenty one days before the date of the AGM.

4. Furthermore, this direction has been issued to the Company to undo the continuing default and comply with the applicable legal provisions and it does not contain any endorsement in respect of the reasons cited by the Company for delay in holding the AGM:
